REELFOOT LAKE MUDDLE.

It looks as if the fishing in Reelfoot Lake for profit is to be worse modified than heretofore. Judge Swigart decided that the Lake was the property of the State of Tennessee, and the case has been taken to the Supreme Court of Tennessee. If the Supreme Court of Tennessee decides Judge Swigart's decision, the general fishing laws of Tennessee will be applied to the Lake, and these laws prohibit fishing with nets and for profit. This being true the several hundred fishermen who derive their living from that avocation, will be closed out, and their condition worse than with the former alleged claimants.

Watch for Ellison's GREAT MILL END SALE, beginning next Friday.

TIPTONVILLE NEWS.

Though Tiptonville now has no rail road, there is scarcely any doubt about her having one road, and possibly two, before the snow of another winter flies. The Union & Tiptonville Rapid Transit, an electric line, has already been surveyed, and a large amount of money already subscribed. It is understood that capitalists are now contemplating an electric line from Fulton, Ky., to Hickman, via Union City. If this line is built it will be extended to Tiptonville just as soon as the Lake county levee is finished, so it can be protected from the overflows of the Mississippi—Fulton Leader.

Watch for Ellison's GREAT MILL END SALE, beginning next Friday.

A WISE DUCK.

The Rural New Yorker tells a story to the following effect that beautifully adorns the tale and paints a meaty moral: "A duck that had laid several eggs during the season complained that while her work record was better than the hen's the latter had books and poems written in her honor, while no one had a word of praise for the duck. A wise old rooster nearby said: 'You lay an egg and waddle off without saying a word about it, while that sister of mine never lays an egg without letting everyone in the neighborhood know it. If you want to cut any ice around here you must advertise.'"

GOT EVEN WITH HER.

An exchange tells of a lady who decided to scare her husband, who was quite a hard drinker, so he would reform. To do this she procured the costume of the devil she had worn at a masquerade. The next time the erring spouse came home feeling happy she quickly donned the costume. As he opened the door she stepped forward and said in sepulchral tones: "Come in with me—I am the devil." The result rather startled her as the response which greeted her was: "Zat so? Shake ol' boy, I'm your brother-in-law. I married your sister."

Mr. Eugene Taylor, our popular fellow-townsmen, who has been seriously ill for several days, we are glad to learn is improving.

REMOVE THE CAUSE.

The shooting to death of the negro Lawson mentioned in last week's Courier as also a previous shooting affair or two earlier in the winter, shows to the public that we have in our midst a dangerous element that should be eliminated. It is noticeable, and is freely commented upon, by respectable and law-abiding citizens, that Hickman is overrun by a shiftless lot of vagabonds, who have no visible means of support. Why they are not made to give an account of themselves, we are not prepared to say. We are impressed that there are laws against vagabondage in Kentucky, and in justice to our citizens, and the morality of Hickman, those having the power to enforce the laws should see to it that the class mentioned in this article give a strict account of their presence and employment, or give the town a wide berth. When our officers of justice, and temperance people, use their energy and influence in fighting "blind tigers" and "boot-leggers," they are simply grappling with the effect of idleness and vagabondage, while the cause remains to again ply its venom as soon as the courts adjourn. First, remove the cause, and the effect is banished. Idleness breeds crime, and where overt acts follow overt acts, and strenuous efforts are not added to suppress the cause, our youth learn it as a matter of fact, and the impression made upon these young minds cannot be grasped this side of eternity. It all means look into the cause as outlined in this article.

SECURE A HOME

On the Installment Plan.

The 2nd series of the Hickman Building and Loan Association is now commencing and the books open for the entry of new shares. This association has now been in successful operation eleven years, its management prudent, conservative and safe, and loaned more than $100,000 to members during that time. Its members are all in full and good maturity, thus proving the solid and substantial basis. The cost to the borrower is now less than at any time in its history. If you want to own your own home, to utilize retail paying for same, or you need help toward paying for property already purchased, in town or country, anywhere in Fulton County, you are the ones the Association specially solicits to take shares. There are more than a hundred citizens of Fulton County who are now, and who have been members, who have borrowed money from the Association, or placed their money as an investment, they are your neighbors and acquaintances, talk to them as to the plan and management of this Association. # Arbuckles' famous Roasted Coffee

The low price at which Arbuckles' famous roasted coffee can be sold is made possible by its enormous sale. It should not be classed with the inferior imitations sold at a cent a pound less than Arbuckles'. It has a quality greatly superior to these imitations and makes many more cupsful to the pound. No other firm in the world can buy coffee to so good advantage as the producers of Arbuckles' Coffee. No other coffee is cleaned, roasted or blended with such great care and skill. When you buy Arbuckles' you get better quality and greater value than you can get in any other coffee at anywhere near the same price.

You also get with each package a definite part in some useful article. Full information with each package. Save the signatures.

REEFOOT LAKE MUDDLE.
It looks as if the fishing in Reelfoot Lake for profit is to be worse muddled than heretofore. Judge Swigart decided that the Lake was the property of the State of Tennessee, and the case has been taken to the Supreme Court of Tennessee. If the Supreme Court affirms Judge Swigart's decision, the general fishing laws of Tennessee will be applied to the Lake, and these laws prohibit fishing with nets and for profit. This being true the several hundred fishermen who derive their living from that attraction, will be closed out, and their condition worse than with the former alleged claimants.

TIPTONVILLE NEWS.

Though Tiptonville now has no rail road, there is scarcely any doubt about her having one road, and possibly two, before the snow of another winter flies. The Union & Tiptonville Rapid Transit, an electric line, has already been surveyed, and a large amount of money already subscribed. It is understood that capitalists are now contemplating an electric line from Fulton, Ky., to Hickman, via Union City. If this road is built it will be extended to Tiptonville just as soon as the Lake county levee is finished, so it can be protected from the overflows of the Mississippi—Fulton Leader.

A WISE DUCK.

The Rural New Yorker tells a story to the following effect that beautifully adorns the tale and paints a misty moral: "A duck that had laid several dozen eggs during the season complained that while her work record was better than the hen's the latter had books and poems written in her honor, while no one had a word of praise for the duck. A wise old rooster, nearby said: 'You lay an egg and waddle off without saying a word about it, while that sister of mine never lays an egg without letting everyone in the neighborhood know it. If you want to cut any ice around here you must advertise.'"

GOT EVEN WITH HER.

An exchange tells of a lady who decided to score her husband, who was quite a hard drinker, so he would reform. To do this she procured the costume of the devil she had worn at a masquerade. The next time the erring spouse came home feeling happy she quickly donned the costume. As he opened the door she stepped forward and said in sepulchral tones: "Come in with me—I am the devil." The result rather startled her as the response which greeted her was: "Zatso! Shake o' boy, I'm your brother-in-law. I married your sister."

Mr. Eugene Naylor, our popular fellow-townsmen, who has been seriously ill for several days, we are glad to learn is improving.

REMOVE THE CROUSE.

The shooting to death of the negro Lawson mentioned in last week's Courier as also a previous shooting affair or two earlier in the winter, shows to the public that we have in our midst a dangerous element that should be eliminated. It is noticeable, and is freely commented upon, by respectable and law-abiding citizens, that Hickman is overrun by a shiftless lot of vagabonds, who have no visible means of support. Why they are not made to give an account of themselves, we are not prepared to say. We are impressed that there are laws against vagabondage in Kentucky, and in justice to our citizens, and the morality of Hickman, those having the power to enforce the laws should see to it that the class mentioned in this article give a strict account of their presence and employment, or give the town a wide berth. When our officers of justice, and temperance people, use their energy and influence in fighting "blind tigers" and "boot-leggers," they are simply grappling with the effect of idleness and vagabondage, while the "cause" remains to again play its vicious game on the courts adjoin. First, remove the cause, and the effect is banished. Idleness breeds crime, and where overt acts follow overt acts, and strenuous efforts are not adopted to suppress the cause, our youth look upon it as a matter of fact, and the impression made upon these young minds cannot be grasped the sale of eternity. It all means less into the cause is outlined in this article.

SECURE A HOME

On the Installment Plan.

The third series of the Hickman Building and Loan Association is now commencing and the books open for the entry of new shares. This association has now been in successful operation eleven years, its management prudent, conservative and safe, and loaned more than $100,000 to members during that time. It has matured ten different series, paid off and settled with all in full, and upon maturity, thus proving its solid and substantial basis. The cost to borrow is now less than at any time in its history. If you want to own your own home, to utilize rents in paying for same, or you need help toward paying for property already purchased, in town or country, anywhere in Fulton County, you are the one the Association specially solicits to take shares. There are more than a hundred citizens of Fulton county who are now, and who have been members, who have borrowed money from the Association, or placed their money as an investment, they are your neighbors and acquaintances, talk to them as to the plan and management of this Association. ### A DESERVED RECOGNITION OF MERIT

The Trustees of Hickman College have, without solicitation upon the part of Miss Doris Smith, passed a resolution expressing her high standing in the college, to give her time to make a canvass for the office of County Superintendent. The Board did this because of the desire to see the office filled by one in whom they have the utmost confidence. Miss Smith has the ability to discharge the duties of the position with care and conscientiousness. She holds a County Certificate, with an average of 92, on all the common school studies, the highest average ever made in the county.

She has for a number of years been a member of the County Board of Examiners, and is well acquainted with the work of the office.

The record of her work as a teacher, as Miss Smith, over 1000 pupils and teachers will be showing to the highest degree.

In consideration of the above facts, we are proud to recommend her for the office of all who feel an interest in the progress and high development of the schools of Hickman County.

RIOT IN ST. LOUIS.

More Than 150 Shots Were Fired and a Sergeant and Two Negroes Wounded.

SECOND DISTRICT BALLOT BOX STOLEN

The Streets Were Filled With Negroes and Some White Men. All of Whom Were Armed.

The Trouble Was the Result of the Jockeying of Two Political Machines to Prevent Any Vote.

St. Louis, Feb. 12.—More than 150 shots were fired, a sergeant of police and two Negroes were wounded, and a ballot box stolen in a riot about the second district polling place of the fourth ward at the southeast corner of the intersection of the main streets early Monday evening.

It was only after a riot had broken out that the police, in a vain effort to restore order, were called out.

From the streets were filled with Negroes and some white men, all of whom were armed, many of them with revolvers, and looking for trouble.

Not a ballot was cast there during the day.

The wounded were: Police Sergeant Sullivan and two Negroes and Fred Jones.

No Kaiting Was Done.

The trouble had been brewing all afternoon. When it came time to close up the polls, the jockeying had not yet ended.

The first shot was fired on the street just south of Laurel. Either has it that the first man to draw a revolver was a Negro named Lamm.

As soon as the shot rang out, the street about the polling place became the scene of a fusillade. Every man drew a gun or two.

Judge John J. Ryan ran out from his desk in the court building and, accompanied by a Negro advancing upon the booth, got in hand. There was no time to make arrests, but the police under Sergeant Sullivan endeavored to get upon the rioters, attempting to disarm them.

The mob dispersed.

It was while he was proceeding, Gen. Monroe, who had resisted the attempt to disarm him, that Sergeant Sullivan was shot. Detective McLeath ran to his assistance, disarmed the Negro, and in the midst of a scattering fire, secured a handkerchief about the wound.

After order had been restored it was found that the riot had been started. Every judge and clerk had been at the windows or front door holding the fort. Some men slipped in the back yard, and taken the box from which they were killed.

THE BRITISH WORSTED.

The Ammunition Bombs Exploded and the English Were Compelled to Retire After Sustaining a Severe Loss.

East London, Cape Colony, Feb. 11.

Details have been received here of being fighting at Talsburg mountain, 40 miles east of the railway and about midway between Smith Deel and Bluefontein. Maj. Croome, with a column of men, was on the morning of January 31. He heard firing and knowing that Col. Piche's column was on the other side of the mountain he concluded that this officer was in action. Consequently he hurried forward only to meet Boers streaming down and evidently retreating from Col. Piche's hostile shells. Immediately Maj. Croome brought three companies and a "pompa" to bear on the Boers who, however, were found to be no more than a rearguard. The Boers then retired. Orders were given to return to camp, about two miles from the mountain. The column rested until the afternoon, when the march was resumed southwest.

At this point the main body of the British force was met by a large force of Boers who were in a hostile position on the mountain. The fight soon became general and the British numbered the British five to one and were attacking them on both flanks and in the rear. The British "pompa" and machine guns were used. The Boers were repulsed and the British pursued them for a distance of about two miles. The Boers were then seen to retreat and the British pursued them for a distance of about two miles. The Boers were then seen to retreat and the British pursued them for a distance of about two miles.
